

Texas HOA Psalm

My HOA is the shepherd I did not want.

It leads me beside cookie-cutter houses.

It destroys my faith in the Texas Constitution.

It guides me in the path of deed restrictions for aesthetics' sake.

Yea, as I walk through the valley of HOA attorneys,

I shall fear foreclosure, for Texas Property Codes do not protect me.

It has anointed my budget with assessments,

My expenses are running over.

Surely, management companies and HOA board members will follow me all the days of my life,

And I will live in a home with a perpetual lien forever.
